

International Dance School 2010 in Marienbad - Czech Republic

*European and American Vintage Dances
Ballroom dances of the 19th Century*

Dancing Classes July 18 - July 25

Grand Ball July 24 in 2010

Dances

The course will reconstruct ballroom dances of the 19th century: both couple and formation dances. These were very popular in the great ballrooms of Vienna, Paris, Prague, Dresden and Boston. Newly reconstructed quadrilles, waltzes, polka and mazurka dance forms of the 19th century will be rehearsed in the course and will be danced during the Grand Ball in festive attire.

Instructors

Sylvia Hartung, Germany – She researches, reconstructs and teaches vintage and modern dances from Europe and North America and is an expert in German and Viennese couple and quadrille dances from the 19th century. She organizes ball events of the era of the musician Johann Strauß, including the great quadrilles. In the course she will teach couple and quadrille dances from the original 19th century dance books and her newly reconstructed >Quadrille Allemande< (A. Freising, Berlin 1861).
- Language in the classes: English

Richard Powers, US - He is currently a full-time instructor at Stanford University and is one of the world's foremost experts on American social dance. He has been researching and reconstructing contemporary and historic social dances for thirty years. He is a popular dance teacher also in Europe and Japan. In the course he will teach ballroom dances - vintage dances - of the classic 19th century.
